

PRESS RELEASE MAGNETIC

Lucky Malice is a punk rock trio coming from Halden Norway. Consisting of Hanne Fauske on bass, Karine Brække on drums and Linda Haug on guitar, with all three sharing vocal duties. They deliver catchy, polyphonic pop in the guise of unpolished and unapologetically raw punk rock. Tours of the underground gems all over Europe have been setting audiences aflame since 2004, and their joy for life and explosive energy is what one should come to expect to see live when they pull up into your city.

On November 13th 2020 they release their fourth album, Magnetic. This is an album about those things in life which have magnetic power - passion, inner demons, love, drugs and the coming together to fight for common causes.

Magnetic will be digitally available on Friday the 13th through Bandcamp, YouTube, Spotify and wherever else you listen to digital music. With 12" coloured vinyl from Germany soon to follow.

Magnetic was co-produced, engineered and mixed by Simen Følsted Nilsen at Aber Studio in Halden Norway in May 2020. With mastering done by Hans Uhre.

Magnetic is being released on Lucky Malice's own label Tonehjulet Kräftpest in cooperation with the Spanish label H-Records
